Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) can be contacted at dpo@dimensions-uk.org if you have any queries about this notice or anything related to data protection.

Your personal data

‘Personal data’ is any information that relates to a living, identifiable person. This data can include your name, contact details, and other information we gather as part of our relationship with you.

It can also include ‘special categories’ of data, which is information about a person’s race or ethnic origin, religious, political or other beliefs, physical or mental health, trade union membership, genetic or biometric data, sex life or sexual orientation. The collection and use of these types of data is subject to strict controls. Similarly, information about criminal convictions and offences is also limited in the way it can be processed.
We are committed to protecting your personal data, whether it is ‘special categories’ or not, and we only process data if we need to for a specific purpose, as explained below.

We collect your personal data mostly through our contact with you, and the data is usually provided by you, but in some instances we may receive data about you from other people/organisations. We will explain when this might happen in this Notice.

How and why we process your data

In general terms, we process your data in order to manage our relationship with you. The table below lists more specific purposes for processing your data, and the legal basis for each type of processing.

| Personal information that enables us to process Board Member, Trustee and shareholder applications, including:
• registering the appointment with regulatory bodies
• completing DBS and health checks
• adding people to our payroll, expenses and IT systems
• maintaining statutory registers, e.g. of Members’ interests, employment history, Fit and Proper Person declarations and Related Party Declarations | Process is necessary for compliance with legal and regulatory obligations |

At times, we may further process data which we have already collected. We will only do this if the new purpose for processing it further is compatible with the original purpose that the data was collected for. We will tell you about any further processing before carrying it out.

Personal data received from third parties

How we store your data

Your personal data is held in both hard copy and electronic formats. Electronic data, including emails, is stored on our servers which are located in the UK and on our software suppliers’ servers (e.g. eShare/Boardpacks) which are used and located in the UK.

Hard copy files are kept in our Head Office.

How long we keep your data

Information about how long we process your data for can be found in our retention schedule.

Some retention periods are based on legal requirements while others take into account practical needs to keep the data. We follow Company Law and National Housing Federation guidance for governance related information.

Once the applicable retention period expires, unless we are legally required to keep the data longer, or there are important and justifiable reasons why we should keep it, we will securely delete the data.
Your rights as a data subject
As a data subject, you have the following rights in relation to your personal data processed by us:

- to be informed about how your data is handled;
- to gain access to your personal data;
- to have errors or inaccuracies in your data changed;
- to have your personal data erased, in limited circumstances;
- to object to the processing of your personal data for marketing purposes or when the processing is based on the public interest or other legitimate interests;
- to restrict the processing of your personal data, in limited circumstances;
- to obtain a copy of some of your data in a commonly used electronic form, in limited circumstances;
- Rights around how you are affected by any profiling or automated decisions.

Withdrawing consent
If we are relying on your consent to process your data, you may withdraw your consent at any time.

Complaints to the Information Commissioner
You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) about the way in which we process your personal data. You can make a complaint on the ICO’s website https://ico.org.uk/.

Exercising your rights, queries and complaints
For more information on your rights, if you wish to exercise any right or for any queries you may have or if you wish to make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer: dpo@dimensions-uk.org
