

About the Dimensions Council

What is the Dimensions Council?

The Council is a group of people who represent all of the people that Dimensions supports.

Council members ask to join and give up their spare time to speak up for people in England and Wales.

The purpose of Council meetings is for Council members to talk about things that are important for people with learning disabilities or autism.

The Council also aims to make sure Dimensions is doing what it should.

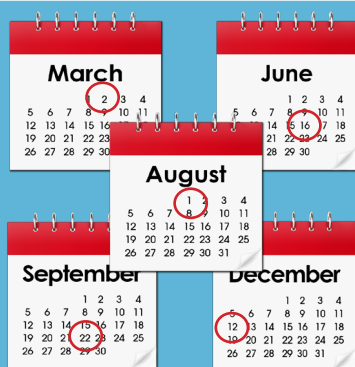

The Council works together with the Dimensions board as partners.

The Council has worked on lots of important things like Hate Crime, health, housing and keeping people safe.

If you want to be a member of the Council you can send a video, letter or email to the Council to say why you would be a great member.

The Council meets 5 times a year and also once with the Dimensions board.

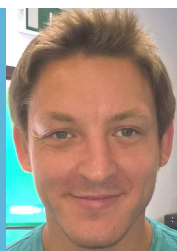

Council members can also chose to do more by going to other meetings to work on things in more detail.

You can find out more about the Council on Dimensions Portal, our You Tube Channel or by sending an email to:
