How to complete this form to enter the Leaders' List

7-17

Please print out pages 7-17 of this form and complete it by hand.

There is some information about what we will ask you on pages 3–6.

At the end of the form there are instructions on how to send your answers to us.

If you have any questions or concerns please email us at DimensionsCampaigns@dimensions-uk.org.

Section 1: About you

We will ask you for some personal details.

We will only use this information to help with your entry and to contact you.

We will not share this information with anybody else without asking you first.

There will be 8 questions.

Please try to answer all of the questions.

Section 2: Choose a category

Next, we will ask you to choose a category for your story.

A category is how we put stories that are similar together.

There are 6 different categories that your story could go in.

One category is Community.

This is for people who are making a difference or getting involved in their local community.

One category is sports, arts, entertainment.

This is for people who are doing creative and sporty things.

One category is work and education.

This is for people who are in paid work or learning new things.

One category is policy and the media.

This is for people who are trying to make their communities or the country a better place with more people included and everyone respected.

One category is for people with profound and multiple learning disabilities.

One category is for groups.

This is for groups and teams who are working together in any of the other five categories.

If you're not sure what category to select don't worry, we will make sure your story is in the best category for you.

Section 3: Tell your story

Next, we will ask you 5 questions.

These questions will help you tell us about what you have done.

If you are chosen as a winner, we will tell people about you and your story.

Please try to keep your answers short and easy to understand.

This is because most of our judges have a learning disability and/or autism.

Section 1: About you

Please try to answer all of these questions.

Please write your answers in the boxes where you see this picture

What is your full name?

How old are you?

What is the postcode of your home address?

Please tell us about any organisations you work with or are supported by.

Please tell us about your learning disability, autism or other disabilities relevant to your story.

Please tell us the name of the person we can contact about your story.

(If this is you, you can leave this blank.)

Please tell us the email address we can use to get in touch.

Please tell us the phone number we can use to get in touch.

Section 2: Choose a category

Please circle the category you would like to choose for your story.
