

What people like and admire about me...

I communicate with passion and conviction.

I smile a lot.

I am optimistic and resilient in responding to pressure and setbacks.

I am dyslexic and have a strong ability to see concepts with a big picture perspective.

I am not afraid to show constructive emotion and vulnerability.

I am nurturing and ensure that everyone has space to grow.

What's important to me...

Collaborating in an inclusive environment that delivers great results.

Seeing people as much more than just one incomplete idea we are made up of many stories.

Turning strategy into practical outcomes.

Space to reflect and bring insight, clarity and focus to complex situations.

Pursuit of Equality Diversity and Inclusion, within and across cultural boundaries.

Interval Training and Spin classes.

Raising awareness on the topic of intersectionality.

My faith, family and friends.

How to support me well at work...

Be direct and be prepared to re-phrase questions to help me better understand what you need from me

Give me feedback so I can continue to learn and adapt my approach.

Provide a safe space for me to speak openly.

Give me autonomy where possible - to be innovative and creative.

Paint me a coherent and compelling picture so I can act.