

What people like and admire about me...

I am a very open person and a clear communicator

I stay calm when things go wrong and help put things right

I am interested in people and a good listener

I care deeply about the work that I do and I stick to my word

I make things happen and don't mind taking difficult decisions

What's important to me...

Being part of a team and working with others to make a difference

Seeing friends and family and going to the ballet or theatre

Spending time doing something that matters to people's lives

Learning new things and understanding complex issues

How to support me well at work...

Talk to me and help me understand what matters to you

When I am talking sometimes I look very serious – remind me to smile!

I like to understand the whole picture so please don't mind my questions and don't keep things back.

Tell me when I get things right – and when I get them wrong!
