

What people like and admire about me...

I am motivated and an active sports fanatic
I am committed
I am forgiving
Hard working
I am determined
Have empathy towards people especially children and those with disability
A team player and I speak my mind
I like good food

What's important to me...

- Using my voice to champion the needs of others with disability
- My family especially my son
- Challenging misconceptions about disability
- Empowering others to achieve and be the best they can be
- Learning from my mistakes and becoming a better person daily
- Being part of positive change
- Inclusion and access is very important to me and everyone deserves to be treated with fairness and without prejudice or discrimination.
- My sport

How to support me well at work...

Allow me 'space' to be creative and be included in the team so you can get the best out of me during meetings.

I like to be given enough time to prepare for travels as I need to check on access so my needs as a wheelchair user are taken into consideration.

I like to receive any paperwork in time for me to read through, reflect and give my views and suggestions.
