

What people like and admire about me...

- My integrity and ethics.
- My pragmatism and ability to apply my expertise to the commercial reality of business.
- My excellent sense of humour, and ability to make work enjoyable and rewarding.
- Being friendly and approachable.
- My drive and energy – I am always thinking of new ways to improve.
- My cultural sensitivity and capacity to work successfully across diverse regions.

What's important to me...

- Taking on roles that allow me to make a positive difference to people's lives.
- Working towards a fairer society – driving diversity and inclusion for all people.
- Supporting people to believe in themselves and helping them to achieve their potential.
- Moving with the times – trying new technologies and new innovative of working.
- Travelling to new cities and new countries - exploring the local culture and local food.
- Spending time with friends and family – walks along the river followed by a hearty pub lunch and a pint.

How to support me well at work...

- Help me find solutions – solutions that are pragmatic and achievable.
- Bring me new and innovate ideas and ways of working.
- Provide the data to support what you are telling me. Present it in a visually impactful way. I am a very analytical person. But I like to stand back and see the bigger picture.
- Teach me something new - I love to learn something new every day.