

People with autism are more likely to visit the library

40% still never visit

The lights are so bright they hurt my eyes

People don't understand me

Silence and unexpected noises are stressful

90% would if changes were made

Autism friendly means some simple adjustments have been made to make the environment more inclusive and sensory friendly.

Download your free training
dimensions-uk.org/autismlibraries

 dimensions

In partnership with

 ASCEL
Leading Excellence in Library Services for Children, Young People and Schools

 SCL
Leading & Managing
Public Libraries